National and State Officers of American Legion Conclude Three Day Conference With Government Officials

WASHINGTON, Dec. 17.—Speedy action was demanded of congress on all matters affecting the government's dealings with former service men, in resolutions adopted tonight by national and state officers of the American Legion at the conclusion of a three day conference here with officials of the war risk insurance bureau.

The resolutions also warned congress of the necessity of providing relief for men who have met with injustice thru the inadequacy of laws under which the present insurance and compensation regulations are administered. At evident spirit of concern was evinced that the legion's power must be exerted if the nation is not to undergo again the burden of pension payments. The pension system was characterized as adding a burden on the coming generations which the taxpayers of these years should shoulder.

Brigadier General Lord, director of finance of the war department; W. W. Lambkin, chief of the rehabilitation division of the federal board for vocational education and surgeon; Lavender, representing the public health service appeared before the legion representatives and were questioned closely in regard to their departments. Specific cases were employed in rapid succession by the legion delegates in developing complaints of inefficiency.

Franklin D'Olier, grand commander, assured the government officials that the legion had no specific complaint against them but that the legion did not recognize failure on the part of their departments to "function satisfactorily."

At the conclusion of the discussion the delegates summed up their views of the needs of the former service men as demonstrated by their study of the situation herein part as follows:

"The Warren and Sweet bills should be passed by congress forthwith.

The bureau of war risk insurance, federal board for vocational education and the public health service should be combined under a single head.

The following modification regarding insurance should be adopted:

Premiums should be payable thru the local post offices.

Restrictions based on relationship of beneficiaries should be removed.

The amount of the insurance under both term and converted policies should be payable at the option of the applicant in a lump sum or otherwise, and if the applicant has exercised no option of the beneficiary a partial disability benefit should be paid under all policies.

That all disabled persons having war risk insurance while in the hospitals, or while receiving benefits under the war risk insurance act, or while receiving training, should have the payment of all insurance premiums remitted during the continuance of their disability and training.

All men receiving vocational training should have their maintenance pay in full and a vocational training official should be stationed at every hospital where disabled ex-servicemen are being cared. Immediate and adequate steps should be taken to reach all persons entitled to vocational training and not receiving it.

Recreational features should be added to the vocational training program.

Substantial increases in all the present rates should be granted. Immediate, liberal and effective action should be taken on all claims.

Persons suffering from tuberculosis should be considered as totally disabled, during the continuance of the disease and as compensable accordingly.

Hospital facilities at present provided are inadequate and congress should make a far more liberal provision for same.

Baker Admits Mistake.

Washington, Dec. 17.—Franklin D'Olier, grand commander of the American Legion made public a letter from Secretary Baker tonight in which the secretary declared that any further action in the case of Allan S. Broms, Minnesota, conscientious objector recently released from Fort Leavenworth, also having more than two years to serve must be taken by the department of justice.

State legion commanders offered the case to the national executive committee for drastic and appropriate action.

order forbidding William D. Haywood to speak there next Sunday.

"It is the outrage of the century that these men should be permitted to go around making speeches," Judge Landis added, referring to Haywood and his convicted I. W. W. associates who are at liberty under bonds. "The United States circuit court of appeals released them, though," the judge continued, "and there is nothing I can do. I was told however, that these men were released under promise that they would refrain from speech-making."

Judge Samuel Alschuler of the circuit court of appeals, said his court could take no action, as he saw it. The only promise exacted from Haywood and his associates, Judge Alschuler explained, was that they refrain from repeating the things for which they were convicted. They were found guilty of obstructing the draft and interfering with the prosecution of the war.

Few Claims Settled.

Only 23,400 of the 324,900 claims for compensation for disability filed with the war risk bureau up to December 5, have been settled definitely, Director Chaimely-Jones told representatives of the American legion in conference today. Approximately 97,000 claims, he said, have been disallowed because the injuries proved only temporary.

Lack of co-operation by former service men was given by Mr. Chaimely-Jones as one of the reasons for delay, which he said, have given rise to innumerable complaints against the bureau. "Literally" thousands of claims lie dormant at the bureau, he added, because of the applicant for compensation failed to furnish required information without which no further action can be taken on the claims.

Eagerness of men to obtain their discharge from service was assigned as another reason for the bureau's troubles.

ASK TWO YEAR DELAY

Tumulty Explains President's Attitude To Delegation Presenting Petition Asking Executive To Delay Return of Roads

WASHINGTON, Dec. 17.—President Wilson's mind is still open on the question of returning the railroad to private control, Secretary Tumulty today told a delegation representing union labor and some farmers' organizations which called to present a petition asking the executive to delay return of the roads for two years.

This was the first authoritative expression on the subject which has come from the white house since the president's administration planned congress last May that he planned to relinquish federal control by January 1.

The president, Mr. Tumulty said, would be glad to get the views of the labor and farmer representatives who insisted that a fair test of government operation in peace time should be given.

While the delegation was at the white house, the senate was speeding up consideration of the Cummins railroad bill. There was no prospect however, that final enactment of any railroad legislation would be completed until well after the Christmas holidays.

Before going to the white house the union labor and farmers' delegation which included President Comptroller of Labor and representatives of the railroad brotherhoods called on Senator Cummins, chairman of the senate interstate commerce committee, and asked that his bill be withdrawn. He indicated that he would lay the request before the full committee.

The letter from the labor and farmers' delegation to the president said proponents of the Cummins bill claimed that the president planned to return the roads by January 1, and that some legislation providing for such return must be enacted immediately.

"We believe that this assertion is a great injustice to you," continued the letter. "As you doubtless know, an overwhelming majority of the farmers and the members of the American Federation of Labor and the railroad brotherhoods, as well as the general public, favor an extension of the period of government operation of the railroads for at least two years in order that a fair test may have been made of government operation and a plan may be worked out for the ultimate disposal of the railroads which would be fair to all interests involved."

"Director General Hines and members of the interstate commerce commission have shown clearly that the return of the railroads will involve an increase in freight rates of close to a billion dollars. This increase in rates according to the same authorities will be reflected in an increased cost of living of at least $4,000,000,000 a year, possibly more and should not stand such an increase."

INCREASES ATTENDANCE

Chicago Ministers Note Increased Church Attendance as Result of Six Planet Story—Cleveland Man Buys Ringside Seat

NEW YORK, Dec. 17.—Astonishment was expressed by the superstitious when the earth did not come to an end today. The ominous position of the planets had been well press-agented and some astrologers and persons versed in witchcraft had maintained that at the precise moment when the major leagues of the solar system formed themselves in a straight line with Neptune, Saturn, Jupiter, Mars, Venus and Mercury on one side of the sun and Uranus on the other, the earth, which had moved four or five solar paces to the front of the line would behave like the one horse shay.

Scientists had scoffed the idea but the superstitious ones recalled having lighted cigars with one match or having walked under a ladder or having done in recent historic times one of the thousand and one other things known as omens of evil days.

Scientists maintained that the effect upon the earth of the planetary alignment would be nil. Astrologers have predicted the end of the world on somewhat similar occasions for centuries. As early as 1186 the world escaped one of their threatened catastrophes.

Disappointment at the escape did not prevent Stoffer from predicting a universal deluge for the year 1524—a year, as it turned out which was distinguished for drought.

More Attend Church.

Chicago, Dec. 17.—"The end of the world" hoax collapsed today. But many of the superstitious who, according to ministers, had quietly prepared for eternity by increased church attendance still awaited the vast sales and other phenomena the tale of the scientific prediction forecast.

Refutations of the world annihilation idea as expounded by scientists were read with a degree of skepticism by the more gullible ones. "They're in good if it doesn't happen," they held, "and no one will be left to indict them if it does."

The conjunction of the planets may possibly have some slight effect upon the weather, but no serious disturbance can possibly result," said Professor Moulton.

Low Temperatures General.

Washington, Dec. 17.—Experts who keep the weather under official surveillance for the government scanned the Heavens and weather reports in vain today for any sign that an alleged solar conspiracy between the earth, Neptune, Jupiter, et al, was about to produce storms which would bring the world to a sudden end. The best the weather men could make out of the signs as they read them was that low pressure areas off the north Atlantic coast and in the far northwest had combined to bring low temperatures generally except along the southern border.

The outlook for tonight and tomorrow, the official forecaster said was for local snow storms in the Great Lakes region and fair weather elsewhere east of the Mississippi river.

Made No Such Statement.

Ann Arbor, Mich., Dec. 17.—Professor Albert Porta, who is generally credited with having predicted the end of the earth to the public, today flatly stated, according to information received in university circles here.

Porta is said to have predicted early in July, that beginning about the middle of December and continuing until the middle of January there would be a series of terrific storms, earthquakes and volcanic eruptions. The opinion is expressed in university circles that these forecasts have been strongly enlarged upon in the telling until the end of the world prediction was attributed to Porta.

Buys Reserved Seat Ticket

Cleveland, Dec. 17.—Charles Johnson, 65, farmer living at West Salem, was in Cleveland today with a reserved seat ticket so as to be in the front row when the world came to an end.

After going to a house where the "beginning of the end" was to be staged, and finding that no one there had even heard the end was at hand, Johnson complained to the police.

"Two men came to me last Saturday and sold me a reserved seat for $15," he said. "They told me all the members of my religious belief were to wait for the end in Cleveland."

PLACE OF MEETING NOT DECIDED UPON

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 17.—John L. Lewis, acting president of the United Mine Workers of America, tonight stated that it had not yet been determined just when or where the general convention of the United Mine Workers of America, to be called soon would be held.

It was decided at the meeting of the general committee of the mine workers here last week, to call such a convention to explain to 2,100 delegates from the locals of the union, the reasons for the action taken by the committee in accepting the president's proposals for ending the strike.

CONGREGATIONALISTS

REPORTS SHOW MANY NEW ACTIVITIES HAVE BEEN INAUGURATED

Review of Year's Work Shows Much Accomplished—Officers For Ensuing Year Elected—Church Refuses to Accept Resignations of C. E. Blak and S. W. Nichols as Passavant Hospital Trustees.

Ninety years ago, December 15, the Congregational church of this city was organized and its annual meeting takes place on the Wednesday evening nearest that date and that was last night. Tables were spread in the lecture room and a bountiful supper was served and greatly enjoyed as it was excellent. A highly appropriate feature of the table festivities was the raising of a purse of fifteen dollars as a Christmas gift for the faithful sexton, Reuben Hyatt.

Rev. W. E. Collins, pastor, was chosen chairman of the meeting and he called on the efficient clerk, Miss Marian Fairbank, for the minutes of the last regular and subsequent called meetings. Rev. W. J. Parrott, pastor of the Springfield Congregational church, being present, was called and responded briefly in a humorous and brotherly address which was much enjoyed.

Pastor's Annual Address.

In giving his annual address the pastor remarked that it was a note of triumph, the impossible had been accomplished (referring to the subscription of $22,000 for improvements to the building). No man has been asked to turn from another denomination to ours. Our success has attracted more attention and we have had inquiries from Iowa regarding our work. We have broken new trains in our work. We rejoice in the prospect of a new building.

The forum was regarded with doubt at first but is now an assured success; the organization of the young women's guild has been a fine move; the Sunday School is increasing; Miss Emily Daniels has been very efficient in assisting in the pastor's work; the work of the young people is encouraging; the three campfire organizations of girls; the boys' club; the desired amount of benevolences has nearly been subscribed; $1,131 having been raised.

He urged members for increased attendance at prayer meeting, at church, at the coming year and prayer spirit of co-operation and unity manifested by the church.

Report of the program was then carried out.

History of the past year—Clerk, Miss Marian Fairbank.

Treasurer—Earl Spink. All debts paid; clean ledger. (It is estimated that for incidental expenses, missions and all purposes the church has paid more than $5,000 during the year.)

Deacon—L. S. Doane.

Deaconess—Mrs. J. C. Fairbank.

Trustee—C. H. Ward.

Passavant Memorial Hospital—S. W. Nichols read the following: Jacksonville, Ill., December 17, 1919.

Members of the Congregational Church.

Rev. W. E. Collins, Pastor:

We, the undersigned Trustees of Passavant Memorial Hospital representing the Congregational Church hereby tender our resignation to take effect as soon as our successors can be elected and qualified.

In explanation of our action we wish to call your attention to several facts which we believe deserve your earnest consideration.

1. We have served our church as Hospital Trustees ever since that Board was organized and have no desire to shirk a public duty. But if our presence on the Board contributes to the apparent prejudice of the public opinion against the Hospital and its needs, we desire that you have full opportunity to elect trustees in which the public will have confidence.

2. We have tried at all times to take an active practical interest in the affairs of the Hospital and by our work and our contributions to assist to the best of our abilities in maintaining and developing it.

3. Contrary to our advice and judgment the Hospital has been allowed to accumulate an indebtedness and moneys which in our opinion should have been reserved as endowment, have been applied to this indebtedness. Although considerable indebtedness still remains unpaid.

4. Recently the Board of Trustees of the Hospital asked the public to contribute a few thousand dollars necessary to complete the new wing, boiler house and laundry. This campaign failed to receive the support of the public and not more than one third of the sum necessary was contributed.

5. We believe that Passavant Memorial Hospital is an absolutely indispensable institution to the public and as necessary as our homes, our churches and our schools. The Hospital belongs to the public and will be developed just to the extent of the general public interest in it. No man, whether he be rich or poor, knows the day when he may be a patient within its walls from either disease or accident. Without modern Hospital facilities and trained nursing it is impossible to properly

STATE RESTS IN

WITNESSES TO BROWN COUNTY KILLING TESTIFIED WEDNESDAY

John Whited and Mrs. Rose Osborne Declared Defendant Was Not Being Threatened When He Shot and Killed Trent Main Points in Testimony Unshaken By Defense.

When the circuit court adjourned Wednesday the defense in the case of Timothy O'Connell, charged with murder, had about completed its presentation of evidence. The alleged crime took place in Brown county Ill., Sept. 6, 1917, when O'Connell shot and killed Lent after an altercation concerning the ownership of a piece of gas pipe. Necessary self-defense is the plea.

The state rested its case at 3 o'clock in the afternoon and at that time the defense began the taking of evidence. Witnesses introduced were for the two purposes of showing that Lent had made threats against O'Connell and further that during the hours just preceding the killing that O'Connell was in normal condition of mind and showed no signs of anger. The state evidently counted much of the testimony of the defense as unimportant for few of the witnesses were cross-examined.

The prosecution has claimed that O'Connell as he passed Lent's home saw a piece of gas pipe which he alleged had been stolen from his spring, that he went to his home, armed himself with a shot gun and returned to the locality where Lent and a companion were engaged in building a sorghum mill.

Important Testimony

The state's star witnesses were John Whited, companion worker with Lent on the day of the tragedy, and Mrs. Rose Osborne, Lent's housekeeper. Whited was on the stand for two hours and detailed the happenings up to the time of the killing, in a way which could not fail to impress the spectators that he was telling the truth. According to the testimony of this witness he remained within the rock enclosure he was building during all the afternoon and that he was there when O'Connell shot and killed Lent. He testified that while within the rock enclosure he was at least 15 feet distant from O'Connell and that further he did not at any time have his spade raised to use as a weapon.

O'Connell warned Lent not to come forward toward him. Whited said that he did not remember such a statement, Mrs. Osborne, another witness to the tragedy, substantiated a part of the evidence given by Whited. She described the stick or club carried by Lent and insisted that it was nothing but a slim branch of a tree, possibly an inch or an inch and a half in thickness.

Affidavit Admitted

The defense centered its effort in an attempt to impeach the testimony of Whited by a statement from Mrs. Nora Baird, based on an alleged conversation with Whited on the night of the killing. In an effort to secure continuance the defense pleaded the absence of Mrs. Baird and her husband, Jack Baird. At that time the court expressed a willingness to admit an affidavit from Mrs. Baird as testimony, and it was read into the record. By this testimony the defense sought to show that Whited had told Mrs. Baird and her husband that he had attempted to strike O'Connell with a spade and further that O'Connell had several times warned Lent to stop as the latter approached him with a club.

Violent Statement Charged

Another important witness for the state was Mrs. Prendergast of Beardstown, who testified that she with others went on a search for blackberries on August 19, 1918, near the O'Connell home. The witness stated that they unknowingly went into Mr. O'Connell's berry patch and were ordered out by him. Asked as to his exact words, she said Mr. O'Connell told them that he had shot one thiefing — down under the hill and could kill some more. Mrs. Marshall, also of Beardstown, was one of the party and she testified to practically the same facts. At 3 o'clock the state rested.

The taking of testimony in the O'Connell trial began at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning. The first witness for the state was W. C. Lent, son of Elwood Lent, who testified as to some facts relative to the inquest and other happenings following the killing. Dr. R. C. McGinn, coroner, answered the questions by State's Attorney Deventer with reference to the wounds found on the body of the deceased at the time of the inquest. Some other details of the inquest were also outlined by this witness.

Fred Aber, who had been present at the inquest, also told of the wounds and the condition of the body. W. H. Adams, clerk in a Mt. Sterling store, told of a visit O'Connell made to that store on the day of the killing when he asked about some shells and because dissatisfied with the size made no purchase. The defense attempted to show that O'Connell went to the store to buy flour and that the inquiry about the shells was casual. Adams testified that O'Connell talked about the shells before he made the purchase of the flour.

John Whited on Witness Stand.

The principal witness of the body was John Whited, who was present at the time that Lent

TO RE-OPEN FIGHT

Senate Sentiment For Settlement of Peace Treaty

SHOULD FORGET PARTY

All Factions Believe Politics Ought to be Forgotten and Something Done Promptly to Establish State of Peace

WASHINGTON, Dec. 17.—Expressions that seemed to point toward a re-opening of the peace treaty fight within a few weeks, were voiced on the senate floor today when the subject bobbed in the midst of consideration of the railroad bill.

The symposium views that went into the record during the brief debate included opinions from virtually all factions of the divided senate membership. Differing widely in their suggestions for a solution, they stood together on the proposition that politics ought to be forgotten and that the senate ought to do something promptly to establish a state of peace. A discussion reflected negotiations which have been in progress privately among senators for an agreement. There was increased activity in that direction during the day and some of the leaders predicted action early in the new year.

Senator Knox, of Pennsylvania, in the reconcilable Republican group of treaty opponents and a member of the foreign relations committee introduced the subject by another attempt to get before the senate his two resolutions to establish a state of peace. The effort was blocked, but he obtained unanimous consent to send the measures to the committee. In the compromise negotiations proceeding private conferences the principle activity seemed to be among the Democrats, the Republican reservationists and the isolationists. The Democratic managers predicted such an agreement would not be tangible until after the holidays.

Among Democrats there was much discussion of the possible effect of the compromise negotiations on the contest between Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska and Senator Underwood of Alabama for election as Democratic leader of the senate. The negotiations started yesterday with the mild reservations of Republicans and were conducted by Senator Underwood's supporters, but he declared tonight that while he stood for some sort of compromise he was not in revolt against President Wilson nor leading any opposition to the treaty.

Consideration of the first of Senator Knox's resolutions which would ratify the treaty insofar as to establish a state of peace, was blocked by Senator McKellar, Democrat, Tennessee, while Senator Nelson stopped the second proposing merely to declare that a statement of peace exists.

In view of the attitude of President Wilson, Senator Knox, declared, the senate would proceed in its own way to secure a formal peace statement out of the best solution it could at once.

Responsibility for the delay was declared by Senator Smith to be about fifty-fifty between the parties. He added that in his opinion more than two thirds of the senate favored ratification with reservations of a certain kind.

"We will make no progress by elimination and re-elimination," said Senator Smith. "Let us cease trying to find out who is to blame for the delay and bring the delay to an end. Party politics should not be played with a matter of such importance. Ratification must be by non-partisan action and every effort to gain partisan advantage handicaps ratification."

Senator Nelson said he would favor the Knox plan if it were made more definite so as to declare specifically that the league of nations provisions are excepted from approval.

DO NOT WANT POET TO LEAVE FIUME

Trieste, Dec. 16.—(By The Associated Press.)—The withdrawal from Fiume of Gabriele D'Annunzio and his troops here did not take place, the women of the town having implored the poet-soldier to retain the present garrison there.

D'Annunzio announces that he will not leave Fiume until the plebiscite which he has ordered for Thursday, approves of his departure.

A group of women in Fiume has organized a demonstration against the withdrawal of the poet.

SEARCH AND SEIZURE LAW IS UPHELD

Court Holds Invalid Part of Law Providing for Destruction of Liquor Without Due Notice Being Given Owners.

Springfield, Ill., Dec. 17.—Constitutionality of the Illinois search and seizure law as far as it pertains to the destruction of confiscated liquor illegally possessed, was upheld today by the state supreme court. The court held invalid that part of the law which provides for the destruction of liquor and other confiscated property without due notice being given the owners.

The court adjourned for the December term today after rendering opinions in a number of cases which have been under consideration at this session.

An act passed by the last legislature validating the city township high schools, whose status has been questioned, was declared constitutional. The schools were established under an act which the supreme court had held unconstitutional.

Another decision of the court granted a new trial to Edgar A. Strauss, convicted of murdering Berne M. Meade, bank cashier.

Faulty instructions to the jury and improper conduct of the jury by the court bailiff were the grounds on which a new trial was granted.

The court refused to set aside its order of December 4, denying the Postal Telegraph and Cable company at the hearing on the court's decision holding the company responsible for errors in transmission of messages. The case was brought to the supreme court on the appeal by Bowman and Buller of Chicago, after a decision favorable to the company had been granted by the Cook county circuit court.

Loaded Ammunition Reported Exploding at Frequent Intervals—All Available Apparatus Fighting Fire

DOVER, N. J., Dec. 17.—An explosion of loaded ammunition at Picatinny Arsenal shook northern New Jersey tonight a few minutes before midnight. Government officers at the arsenal telephoned to Dover to send all available fire apparatus and a few minutes later wire communication with the arsenal was cut off. It could not be ascertained if there was any loss of life. Flames at the arsenal can be seen for several miles.

Ammunition Exploding.

At 1:15 this morning (Thursday) shells were exploding at frequent intervals in the burning arsenal. Several men have been employed at the arsenal, which has maintained operations since the signing of the armistice, manufacturing powder.

Reports "Exaggerated"

New York, Dec. 18.—Telephone communication was established from here with the Picatinny Arsenal shortly before 3 a. m. (Thursday). The man who answered the telephone said he had been ordered to give out no information but that reports that the arsenal had been destroyed "were exaggerated." He said the fire was still in progress but that he had not heard of any casualties.

MAY REJECT PLANS FOR REGULAR ARMY

Rejection of War Department's Proposals Appear Practically Certain.

Washington, Dec. 17.—Rejection by house and senate military committees of war department proposals for a regular army of 576,000 officers and men appeared practically certain tonight when Chairman Wadsworth predicted that the senate committee would fix the strength of the force at about 280,000. The house committee has already agreed tentatively on approximately similar program.

Senate sub-committee hearings on the bill were concluded today while the house committee took up questions concerning the national guard.

The military policy committee of the American Legion explained to the sub-committee today recommendations of the organization as formulated at its recent convention in Minneapolis.

Under the legion's recommendations, only a sufficient standing army for police and overseas garrison purposes should be provided.

Universal military training for boys from 18 to 20 years of age and a general staff, liberalized by an admixture of citizen officers, was recommended. Continuance of officers' training camps and a separate department of aeronautics were favored.

It is fortunate that the merchants of Jacksonville prepared a busy Christmas season. They are doing far more business than at any other time of the year. The shopping days until Christmas are the best of the year. Although such inroads have been made upon the well chosen stocks of Jacksonville stores, the offerings are still of a kind to attract and to please.

Congress has decided that the sugar equalization board should continue its efforts thru another year. This action on the part of congress must have taken a good deal of faith and courage when it is remembered that sugar is now retailing at 23 and 25c a lb. It was only a few months ago that the government announced that 11 to 12c was a fair price. Let's hope that the equalization board in 1920 betters its 1919 record.

WITH UNITED FRONT.
The ministers of Morgan county are joining in the inter-church movement. They purpose to bring about a greater unity of the church organizations of the city and county. It is a worth while, sensible movement with great attendant possibilities not only for the strengthening of the churches but the betterment of the community. All these different churches are striving to accomplish the same things. Then why is it not the most feasible thing in the world to strengthen their cause by union of effort?

THE RIGHTS OF THE ROAD.
President Wilson's silence on the railroad question and the near approach of January 1 indicate that the roads will not be turned back to private management at that time. There is a common feeling that it will be almost criminal to take this action without by law having made provisions for the changing business conditions that will result. The roads in private hands would face bankruptcy without some special legislation protecting their future. The Cummins bill may need amendment but certainly some railroad legislation outlining a definite plan for the railroad management must be adopted before the roads are returned to their owners if disaster is to be avoided.

LEGAL EDUCATION.
Morgan county people are getting a liberal education concerning the law and its relation to murder. For two full weeks now murder trials have been in progress in the court house here. Each day finds the court room crowded. Some of the same people return day after day while while others make only one visit. But it is safe to say that thousands of citizens have heard the taking of testimony or the argument of attorneys at some stage or other of these trials. The fact that the men charged with crime come here on change of venue has not lessened the local interest in these cases.

There are girls and boys of school age who have been attending these trials. The only possible benefit that can come to them from such attendance is a new knowledge of what a wonderful thing is self-control and how necessary for the preservation of society is respect for the law.

ONLY THE PEOPLE CAN DO IT.

The delegates at the living cost congress were right in saying that the clerks and others of moderate salaries have had the worst of it in the struggle. There has been the task of trying to make a 1914 dollar stretch over the living costs of the 1919 dollar. It has been an impossible task without rigid economy and in many cases sacrifices of personal comfort.

There is nothing new in the suggestion the attorney general has made for an organized refusal of people to buy at high prices or in the plea for personal economy. It is, however, the first time that a country-wide organized effort along these lines has been proposed. It is possible to accomplish wonders by this plan if the great majority of people are sincerely in earnest in their desire to cut living costs and to save money. Any reform or forward movement can be carried to a satisfactory conclusion if there is a real and deep-seated public sentiment behind it. It remains to be seen how genuine is the wish of the American people for these lower price levels.

The Spendthrift.
I'm a blithe and reckless spender, trotting with a gilded band, and I blow my legal tender with a free and lavish hand. Not a stiver, not a copper, do I save for days to come; and some day I'll be a pauper, sloshing homeless through a slum. Oft I see cautious fellow salting little dollars down, while I'm painting red and yellow streaks around the giddy town; he'll be paying heavy taxes to support me, when I dwell, with the other battle-axes, in the poorhouse in the dell. All the people who are saving must support me when I'm old, when with 'other bums I'm raving over lost and wasted gold; when I've soaked my watch and brooches, and my hat and fountain pen, and I'm sitting swatting roaches in the poorhouse in the glen. People tell me I am crazy not to salt some coin away; but that threat seems vague and hazy, treating of the rainy day. For the present day is sunny, there's no dampness in the breeze and I'm busy burning money that is growing on the trees. Youth's the time for gay carousers; I'll conduct the merry war, till I'm chasing rats and mice in the poor-house on the tor.

REV. R. H. M. AUGUSTINE PLEADS FOR UNITY

In Address to Ministers at Central Christian Church Says, All Denominations Must Unite for Common Good—Will Prevent Overlapping of Work.

Could the spirit of King David have been present at the Christian church yesterday morning he would have recalled with unctious the 133d psalm, "Behold how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity, etc." for there was Rev. R. H. M. Augustine, state supervisor of the Illinois section of the inter-church world movement of North America, in a word, a movement for co-operation of all the churches of the country to work in harmony to promote the welfare and progress of the kingdom of Christ on earth.

The pastors of the Presbyterian, Methodist, Baptist, Christian and Congregational churches of the city were present and in addition Rev. Messrs. A. E. Powell, Presbyterian church, Woodson; Ernest C. Rutherford, pastor Baptist church at Alsey; L. R. Cronk, pastor Christian church at Lynnville, and R. L. Reynolds, pastor Pisgah Presbyterian church.

Mr. Augustine said in brief: The object of the movement is to influence as many lives as possible. New ties have grown out of the great world war; the towns of the country have become more compact since working together so harmoniously during the great conflict. More and more are the churches coming together in the great Christian objectives. Less time is given to debate and more talk is of the kingdom of the Redeemer. The question is not one of Methodist, Presbyterian, but all are united in one grand purpose. There is no denominational standard but all are united in the great cause; religious education; and all other good movements. There is a better brotherly feeling than ever. There is not a spirit of rivalry but each denomination rejoices in the work and progress of the other.

Must Work Together
To accomplish great things all must put their shoulders to the wheels of progress uniting the Christian forces of the churches and community and so labor that all in a given territory may be reached. Are there areas and people in Jacksonville not reached? They are the ones the movement is after.

A boy asked his father if they put a minister in a stall and fed him when they installed him but the father said no; they put him in a harness and make him pull the whole load. Too much has been the way in the past and the desire is to get all the forces to work. The Christian forces of any given area must all unite to accomplish the great ends and aims in view. Too much has the church been backed completely off the boards when it came to discussion of great and important matters of great importance when its presence and influence were most useful and all important. Today the church is involved in great questions of right and wrong and deserves a voice in the conduct of affairs.

Divide Mission Fields.
Foreign missions should be divided into fields and units to avoid overlapping of forces. Home mission boards of education and work should be similarly coordinated. This is especially important when some denominational institutions are especially weak and need assistance or should give up the field to others. This too is felt by both ministers and laymen. The inter-church movement is not designed to replace any specific work or movement but to try to unify the forces of righteousness that they may present a bold and aggressive front. It is a special movement to make more efficient the work of each denomination. There are sometimes communities in which the number of churches could be reduced with good effect and it should be done thru Christian co-operation and not thru strife and debate.

Home and foreign missions will be great tasks to be undertaken. Reconstruction will be more or less necessary and the result will be fewer and stronger churches and work everywhere. We need a united work of assimilation and publicity and we have a challenge to aid in the mighty work at home and abroad. We want to begin

OLD JACKSONVILLE

TWO OLD RESIDENTS

By Ensley Moore
(Member Illinois State Historical Society)

They—Mrs. Annie E. Ayers and Abraham R. Gregory—were not "old settlers" because they came here young, but each was resident here for many years.

Each of them, in their different places, bore an important part in the history of Jacksonville, more than many others in their characteristic social relations to our people.

Mrs. Ayers.
Annie E. Diller, of Downingtown, Pa., became the wife of Augustus E. Ayers March 2, 1852. She died Dec. 8, 1919.

Mr. Ayers a child of nearly four years of age, had come here with his parents in 1830. The old people were well-to-do and always upbuilding in business, in church, in education and in philanthropic matters. Mrs. Ayers notably so, in giving Passavant hospital to this community.

Altho in better circumstances than most young people of that day, Mr. Ayers began his married life in a little house where the big brick one now stands, at 874 West State street. But that humble frame dwelling was brightened and embellished by the beautiful, tall young woman who became its mistress, for she was lively and enjoyed fun.

This place was their home until about Christmas of 1857, when they took possession of the large and handsome residence which was their home.

In the first house, two little girls came to them—Florence and Annie Reece. In the new home they welcomed Mary—who soon took on angel-hood—Augustus Marshall and Grace. From the new home Mr. Ayers' grandmother, Mrs. Freytag passed on, after a long, long journey thro life and her daughter, Mrs. Eliza (David B.) Ayers, who had fared along the road for nearly a hundred years.

The new home, which saw the lives of the children as well as of the grandmothers, was the scene of handsome entertainments in the days of "Old Jacksonville's" delightful hospitalities.

Mrs. Annie E. Ayers was a fine housekeeper—exceptionally so—and she maintained one of the finest vegetable gardens in the town, not neglecting flowers in the front yard.

She was of friendly, or Quaker, ancestry, but became a member of the Presbyterian church, and a charter member of Westminister. She and her husband gave handsomely to it for years—her last thought of such work being of it.

While in fine circumstances, Mrs. Ayers was not assuming, but this work first at home; get our hearts, chins and communities right. We want to get behind the pastors first of all, strengthen their hearts and don't expect them to pull all the load.

Get behind church officials who long have borne the burden and heat of the day; cheer and inspire them and all aid in a grand, unite movement against the forces of evil. There were during the war 480 women who labored grandly in a hospital for sick and wounded soldiers; now they should be working for the Great Commandment.

The object of this movement is to make one grand, united drive for the upbuilding of the Redeemer's kingdom in sane, sensible, business like ways, enlisting all the churches in one mighty army, fighting the forces of evil. A time was devoted to questions regarding the concrete aspects of the work as considerable time and effort will be needed to effect what is desired.

Following this came a fine dinner admirably served by the good ladies of the Christian church who came in for many compliments and commendations.

The afternoon was devoted to further consideration of the subject and was a time very profitably spent.

she dressed elegantly, in good taste.

She was a woman of quick and kindly sympathies, neighborly in the hour of sorrow.

Mr. Gregory.
It seems to the writer as if enough had not been said in public print regarding Mr. Gregory. He, too, was born in Pennsylvania—between Shippensburg and Carlisle—September 25, 1832; and came here with his parents, in December, 1834. His parents were in good financial shape, and his father active in Odd Fellowship. Mr. and Mrs. John Gregory were members of the old First Presbyterian church.

Abraham became a clerk in the store of Daniel Robb in 1849, and stayed there for years. He was a handsome and pleasant young man, and with Robert D. Landers, Mr. Robb had a good pair. These two young men were especially attractive and well appearing for those early days.

After Mr. Robb's death, Mr. Gregory pursued a business life more redired, rather speculative, but supposed to have been quite successful. He also was interested in politics—being a Republican—and served the city in its Council, and two terms in the Board of Education, in both of which his business ability was our gain. He was also identified with county business.

Mr. Gregory had a quiet and gentle interest in people, and being here so long—until Dec. 11, 1919—he knew a great many persons and about their homes and lives.

"The 'O. J.' man cannot allow Mr. Gregory to be forgotten in view of the many points of information Mr. Gregory had contributed for this series of articles. He was exceptionally clear and fair in his memory.

Mr. Gregory built a good residence on South East street which was his home to the last. It should be stated that he was twice married.

In personal appearance he quite resembled his sister, Mrs. Sanford, they both being very good looking.

John Gregory, the father, was one of the founders of Odd Fellowship in Jacksonville, and Abraham R. was also prominent in the Lodge, having joined Illini in 1857.

Mr. Gregory's first wife, Mary Andrus, was the mother of Mary Gregory Rimes, of Chicago; and his second wife, Mrs. Jane Phillips, was the mother of his sons, Frederick Larue and Abraham R. Gregory.

TOPSY TURVEY SOCIAL
On Saturday, Dec. 20 there will be a "topsy turvy" social given at the Bethel school house. There will be a program from 7:30 o'clock after which sandwiches will be served. Every one that attends the social must wear something wrong side out or upside down.

was interested in reading the Springfield Journal to see the music years ago in Jacksonville. He learned that the writer had the great pleasure of hearing Carlotta Patti sing in the old Jacksonville Opera House, but was not in Jacksonville at the time of Adeline Patti's concert. Adeline was quite young at the time, and was taken by a Jacksonville lady to her home before the concert, where she enjoyed playing with Lis, etc. She was a noted prima donna in opera. Carlotta Patti was an equally fine singer, but did not act on the operatic stage on account of a lameness of her knee.

RESTS IN O'CONNELL TRIAL

of the strength of the case rests. Whited told a story and in examination the defense was to shake the principal of his statement. The summary testimony of Whited was effect: "I had known Elwood Lent quite well for five years or 10 or 15 years prior to that time had known him since 1917. On September 6, 1917, he was in building a house with a sashum mill. This house was probably 28 feet long by 15 inches wide. Near the house we were building this was a piece of gas pipe 20 feet long and it was a gas pipe which Timothy O'Connell charged had been stolen from him.

He did not see O'Connell until late in the afternoon, about half past four, he drove past on the way Versailles to his home. At the Mark Wood was sitting under the place where O'Connell nodded to us as it past but did not speak. I did not see the man again until 40 minutes later when he over the hill and thru the woods. He was carrying a shot and said to me with an oath, 'I'll blow you out.' I told him that I had the gas pipe and didn't anything about it. I then to Lent who was about 75 away unharmed. He replied 'I'll be there in a minute.' Soon I saw him there down the path with a club or piece of brush under his arm. He was pulling of the leaves as he came along, entered to shoot woman. O'Connell said something to Lent and Lent replied, but I do not what was said. When Lent reached a point about 35 feet from O'Connell the latter his gun and Lent fell to the ground. Instantly I wheeled on me as I told drop the spade I had in my hand. At that time I was standing in the rock enclosure 15 feet from O'Connell, and did not move from that position. About this time Mrs. Rose, housekeeper for Lent, came down the path and toward and said something I did not to O'Connell. He cursed her and she went to keep still would shoot her. Then she disappeared over the and across the pasture. A cross examination Mr. Hart made every effort to show Whited had his spade raised position to strike when O'Connell turned on him with the His evident purpose was to that one man was approaching O'Connell with a club and the was at his side or rear with and that in order to avoid harm and in necessary self-defense that he fired the shot which killed Lent. The attorney sought in various ways to have the witness admit that he heard O'Connell warn Lent at least three times to stop or he would shoot. To questions of this kind the customary answer of the witness was "I positively did not, no sir." This same answer was given repeatedly when the defense tried to show that Whited in a conversation the night of the killing with Mr. and Mrs. Baird, neighbors who stopped to make inquiry related facts other than those to which he testified yesterday.

Attempt to Impeach Testimony.

The attempt was to show that Whited had said in that conversation that he was about to strike O'Connell with the spade but the latter was too quick for him and fired the fatal shot before he had time to tell him.

In the further attempt at impeachment of the witness's testimony the defense tried to show at the time of this alleged conversation that Whited told Baird that Lent was carrying a club 4 or 5 feet long, straight and smooth, and further that he exhibited the club. Mr. Hartzell asked a long series of questions about the topography of the land surrounding the Lent home, the purpose being to show that O'Connell probably did not approach by way of a rayne which led from the spring on his land down to the Lent home, but came across the wooded pasture because the path was easier that way. The defense was unsuccessful in its attempt to prove that Whited had knowledge of some ill feeling between O'Connell and Lent and that the latter had threatened that he would some time get even with O'Connell for his attempt to have him and Mrs. Osborne indicted by the Brown county grand jury.

Explains Use of Word 'Settle.'

If there was any slip at all in Whited's testimony it was just a matter of terms. When asked why he called Lent he replied that he wanted him to come down and 'settle' the trouble. The defense seized on that word as indicating that the witness expected Lent to come down and with some show of force put an end to the trouble. But later on the witness explained that he meant by 'settle' that he thought Lent would come down and tell where the pipe had come from.

The state brought out that the conversation between Whited and Mr. and Mrs. Baird was very brief, that it occurred at night and that Mr. and Mrs. Baird were at the time in a covered buggy.

Mark Wood, the next witness, was with Whited when O'Connell passed on the way home and his brief testimony was only with reference to the time that elapsed between the passing of O'Connell and the time when he heard a shot fired. Lester DeWitt of Mt. Sterling, another member of the coroner's jury, gave further testimony about the wounds noted when the inquest was held. Geo. P. Davis of Mt. Sterling testified to the finding of a club or stick which it is alleged that Lent was carrying at the time he was shot. The witness described this as about 5 feet long and from 1-1/2 to 3 inches in diameter, with leaves or twigs on it. He stated that there was also some blood on the stick and on the weeds adjacent to the spot where he found the stick. He told the jury that the coroner had asked him to look for a stick or club near the spot where Lent had fallen and it was in making this search that he subsequently gave to the coroner. Lent's Housekeeper Told Story

When court convened at 1:30 o'clock the first witness called by the state was Mrs. Rose Osborne, who testified that she had been housekeeper for Elwood Lent thru a long period of years.

Answering questions asked by Attorney Wall, the witness narrated happenings at the time of the killing. She was unable to recall hearing any word of warning spoken by O'Connell and testified that the 'club' which Lent picked up was a slim branch of a tree and was the size sometimes used for a horse whip. She testified that she had no knowledge of any ill-feeling that Lent had toward O'Connell. The defense made an effort to show that this testimony was quite at variance with that given by Mrs. Osborne at the coroner's inquest, but the main statements in the testimony remained unshaken.

Charles DeWitt of Beardstown was the next witness called. This witness told of being at a house in LaGrange with his son, John Whited, Christopher Wilson and some other persons, when Elwood Lent came up with a lame dog. When someone mentioned the lameness of the dog Lent said, "Tim O'Connell, the Irish -- I'll give him some of the same kind of stuff that he gave my dog." When cross examined the witness stated that the dog seemed to have been shot, as it was then quite lame. Attorneys for the prosecution forced the witness to admit that he served a sentence of 11 months at Joliet for some crime he had committed.

Told of Threats

John Sars of Chandlerville, lumberman, testified that he knew Elwood Lent quite well and saw him about two weeks before his death. On that occasion the witness testified, Lent declared that if O'Connell ever crossed his path he would shoot him like a dog. On the day referred to the witness had gone to the Lent home to ask permission to take some logs down thru his place which he had purchased from O'Connell. On that occasion Lent declared, according to the witness, that he would not accommodate O'Connell to that extent.

Upon cross examination the witness stated that he had told no one of the alleged conversation between Lent and himself.

The next witness to take the stand was Virgil DeWitt of Beardstown, who stated that he was the son of Charles DeWitt, a previous witness, and that he was present in LaGrange and heard the alleged threat made by Lent against O'Connell. When cross examined the witness said that he had never told Mr. O'Connell of the alleged conversation.

George Berwin, farmer, living near LaGrange, testified to a conversation he had with Mr. Lent in 1917. The witness stated that some trouble he had with Mr. O'Connell over the effort of the latter to have him (Lent) indicted for living with Mrs. Osborne altho not married to her. The witness stated that Lent declared on that occasion that "someone ought to knock O'Connell in the head."

When cross examined the witness stated that he had told no one of the alleged threat until he told the attorneys for the defense about it at the Pacific hotel Tuesday night. He said he had never mentioned it to Mr. O'Connell.

Clifford Cox, a nephew of the defendant, was then called to the stand. The witness stated that he lived about a mile and a half from the Lent home and knew Elwood Lent quite well. The witness testified that upon one day in April, 1916, Elwood Lent told him that he would kill Timothy O'Connell if he ever crossed his path. The witness was under the impression that he had told his uncle of the threat.

Charles Winn of Beardstown testified that he was in the lumber business in that city from 1904 until 1909 and that during that time he frequently saw Elwood Lent. His testimony related chiefly to the physical condition of the man who was killed on Sept. 6, 1917.

Seek to Show Warning Given

Albert Moulton, the next witness, stated that he lived about 200 yards from the Lent home at the time that Elwood Lent was shot. The defense sought by this witness to show the surroundings of the Lent home in detail and after some discussion he was allowed to describe these surroundings. The witness testified that he saw John Whited the night after the inquest was held and had a talk with him at the bridge near the Lent home. The witness testified that Whited said on that occasion: "When Elwood Lent was crossing the bridge Tim O'Connell said to him to stop, that if he took another step he would kill him."

Upon cross examination the witness stated that he did not make note of what was said on that occasion.

Samuel Rentz was then called and testified to his acquaintance with Elwood Lent. William Smith, the next witness, stated that he had worked for the defendant about eight years and that he knew it was Mr. O'Connell's habit to frequently hunt about his own premises. The testimony of William Petri, who lived on a farm adjoining that of Mr. O'Connell, was to the same effect.

Defendant Often Carried Gun

James O'Connell was then called to the stand and stated that he worked for Mr. O'Connell in September 1917, at the time Elwood Lent was shot. He stated that he was not a relative of the defendant. The witness stated that the defendant was in the habit of hunting on his farm and that he on such occasions carried a repeating shot gun with him. The witness told the jury that on the day Elwood Lent met death, he (the witness) was engaged in cleaning the O'Connell barn and hauling the manure to a field about a quarter of a mile distant and there unloading it.

The witness testified that on the day in question Mr. O'Connell returned home from Versailles about 4 o'clock in the afternoon, unhitched his team and came down to the barn and talked with him for several minutes, then went to the house. The witness stated that he finished loading the manure, then took it to the field and unloaded it. Returning in about an hour's time, he saw Mr. O'Connell going down the road south with a shot gun in his hand. The witness stated that the defendant was going in the direction of the woods pasture, in which is located a spring. He stated that he noticed nothing unusual in the defendant's actions that afternoon.

C. A. Smith, a poultry dealer of Versailles, was then called. The witness testified that on September 6, 1917, he saw Mr. O'Connell in Versailles, and that the latter did not appear to be excited or in other than a normal condition. James Whitaker also testified to seeing Mr. O'Connell in Versailles on the afternoon of Sept. 6, 1917. He stated that he had no conversation with the defendant on that day, but that he overheard a conversation between the defendant and someone else.

Other witnesses who testified were Elihu VanDeventer, H. C. Webster and Miss Mary O'Connell. The intent of the defense was to show thru these witnesses that the killing was not pre-meditated and that for hours prior to the time of the tragedy that O'Connell was in his normal state of mind and gave no signs of ill-humor.

FRENCH AIRMAN FLIES 226 MILES PER HOUR

Paris, Dec. 16.—A burst of speed of approximately 226 miles an hour was scored by Sadi Lecointe, the noted French aviator, in an officially timed airplane test today. Lecointe, who holds the French record for height and broke the French speed record, last September, tested the distance of a kilometer in today's test at an average speed of 207.225 kilometers (about 129 miles) an hour, while during some seconds of his flight he reached a speed of 364.5 kilometers (226 miles) an hour, or about 3-3/4 miles a minute.

MANCHESTER BOY IS ACCIDENTALLY KILLED

Lost Meets Death When Horse Which He Was Riding Slipped and Falls Upon Him—Life Crushed Out Instantly—Neck, Both Legs, and an Arm are in Pieces

Manchester, Dec. 17.—Henry Mehrtorf, aged 15 years, was instantly killed on a road southeast of this place at noon today when the horse on which he was helping drive stock slipped and fell, crushing the boy under its legs. Both of the lad's legs, one of his arms, and his neck were broken. It is believed that death was practically instantaneous. It was at least fifteen minutes before the heavy animal could be moved and the body released.

The accident happened just about 12 o'clock. Young Mehrtorf and his grandfather, William Mehrtorf, of Manchester, both had ridden saddle horses to the farm of Frank Lorton, where the elder Mehrtorf had recently purchased a hog at a sale. The two started the hog down the road on their horses intending to drive it to the farm of Robert Spencer, an uncle of the boy's. They had not gone a great way when the accident occurred. The older man was a little distance ahead so that no one actually witnessed the tragedy or can tell exactly the cause for the fatal fall. The horse slipped on the ice and fell into a hole or depression at the side of the roadway. The child fell in such a way that the full weight of the animal came down upon him.

Mr. Mehrtorf immediately ran to the lad's assistance but seeing that he could not move the prostrate horse went for help. Frank Lorton and Frank Clinnard hastened to aid in moving the animal and soon freed the child but life was extinct.

Deceased was the son of Mrs. James Atkinson residing east of Manchester and is survived by the mother and one sister Helen. His father preceded him in death twelve years ago.

The coroner of Greene county was notified of the tragedy and will come up from Carroll on Thursday morning to hold an inquest over the body.

KANSAS WHEAT CROP

Topeka, Kans., Dec. 17.—The new winter wheat crop in Kansas is 23 per cent smaller than the 11,610,445 acres sown to wheat a year ago—the largest acreage ever devoted to wheat by any state—according to an official report issued by the state department of agriculture. The new acreage is 8,951,834 which has an average condition of 57.1 per cent normal, the report stated. The department's correspondents throughout the great central Kansas "wheat belt" gave "scarcity and high cost of labor" as the principal reason for the reduced acreage.

MAY BE DICTATED BY WAGE EARNER'S TASTES

Cincinnati, O., Dec. 17.—Men's styles in the future, as they emanate from the shops of the merchant tailors, may be dictated by the tastes of the plumber, the farmer, the milk wagon driver. They and their fellow workers have become patrons of merchant tailoring, and they think nothing of paying a high price for a suit, according to Chris E. Krieger, president of the Cincinnati Merchant Tailor Designer's Association.

The past few years have brought a decided change in the patronage of the merchant tailor," he said, in announcing that the subject would be discussed at the national convention of the Merchant Tailor Designers' Association, to be held here February 3-6. "We still have the business man; but there is a new clientels. We have won the patronage of the skilled mechanic, and he is not particular how high priced are the suits he orders. He wants the best. To a lesser extent, we find the farmer developing, as a class, into a patron of merchant tailoring. He wants his Sunday suit well tailored; and his tastes run mostly to subdued colors."

GIRLS RETURN FROM MONTICELLO SEMINARY

An Opportunity to Own Shares of Montgomery Ward & Co.

Incorporated
Common Stock

Large growth and greatly increased earning possibilities are apparent for the common stock shares of this old established mail order house. If the chain store business, now being discussed in connection with the mail order business of Montgomery Ward & Co., develops to the extent possible, the profits derived from this source alone should add to the income of the company many times greater than the present sum total from all departments of the mail order business. But, without figuring any revenue from the chain store business, we believe the company will double its business every few years as it has done in the past, and it is reasonable to expect that gross sales and profits will multiply even more rapidly than in the past for the following reasons:

1. Large amount of additional money in the company's treasury.
2. Additional of other very able merchants to the board.
3. Great prosperity of the farmer and the country in general.

We therefore believe that those who purchase and hold Montgomery Ward & Co. common stock will continue to profit from it as handsomely as in the past if not much more so.

NAL SESSION HELD COLLEGE WEDNESDAY

arked Interest Shown in Excellent Programs Presented Yesterday—Institute Was Decided Success in Every Way.

The last session of the Home Economics Institute was held yesterday at the Woman's College. The morning session of the Institute, Miss Nina B. Crigler, food specialist of the Extension Department of the University of Illinois, led on the topic "How Do We Lose Our Pounds?" Miss Crigler spoke of the planning of the meals for the whole day as a time saving method as well as a help in fitting all the foods necessary for the best physical well-being of different members of the family group. A large per cent of income is spent for food but much money is spent for the wrong food and so sickness is brought on. She said that nutrition is a science rather than old-wives' tales about what one shall eat and what not. Miss Crigler referred to the old calendar, which she explained Tuesday, as being a great help in choosing the proper foods, great deal of the sickness every year is caused by an improper selection of food. There are over a million malnourished in the country, and the remarkable fact about it is that a greater number are found in homes which were supposed to provide plenty of food. Miss Crigler gave the proportion of a dollar which should be spent on each of the food groups. The food of milk and the leafy vegetables in each day's diet was particularly stressed by Miss Crigler, and she gave the women an opportunity to write to the Home Economics Department for advice on questions of food.

Cooking Class Demonstrates. One of the most interesting demonstrations at the Institute, is given by Miss Ruth Hill's class in cookery. The girls in the bakery class, with the assistance of Miss Hill worked out a very clever one act play, which illustrated correct table service and at the same time showed the use of ovens in a very attractive series. This playlet may be published in the near future for use in Home Economics clubs, as it is simple to work out and the facts are illustrated in such an interesting manner.

At the afternoon meeting George Kendall spoke on "Phases of the Farm Bureau of Interest Women." He said that the farm Bureau had carried out two objects of interest to women, that of canning demonstrations and of culling demonstrations—in apple, literature, Murrayville and Jacksonville. He also stated that one of the greatest problems of the day is to try to feed the population on the farm lands that now have.

Advocates Budget System. Mr. Kendall was followed by Edna L. Storrs, whose topic was "Economy in Dress." Miss Storrs said that women today were well paid positions and they were willing to pay high prices for things which are causing prices to go up. She also said that 15 per cent of clothing is worn out, 25 per cent is never worn out. The answer to this is the change styles. "It is more important to talk about spending money than it is to talk about saving money," Miss Storrs advocated a budget system which allows from 15 per cent to 20 per cent for clothing expenses. Miss Nina B. Crigler's subject was "The Home Bureau and the Science of Housekeeping." Miss Crigler said that housekeeping is a science in which millions of dollars and human lives are invested. "Housekeeping is something more than cooking three meals a day and buying clothes for the family. It is a business and must be conducted wisely. A business that does not use every minute wisely is a poorly conducted business. Woman must learn to so conduct her business of housekeeping that not a minute may be lost in something that is not of benefit to her. Woman is the general manager, purchasing agent, nurse, and is responsible for educational and religious training in the home."

Dr. J. R. Harker, president of the Woman's College made a short talk on the possibilities of a Home Bureau in Morgan County. The meetings of the Home Institute have been very successful and it is hoped that a Home Bureau may be soon organized in Morgan County.

THE VICTOR. So named because with this machine was solved the correct reproduction of voice or instrument. The Victor Victrola is a perfect instrument. THE NEED OF THE HOUR

The need of the movement so well discussed in the Christian church yesterday is well exemplified in many ways. In the northern part of this state are two towns seven miles apart. In each are a Methodist and Presbyterian church each of which is able to furnish a pastor but half support so each place has a resident minister and union services are held each Sunday in both places and every other Sunday these two preachers pass each other going to their respective appointments.

Finally it was suggested that the churches unite and let each pastor have the united church in his own home but at once arose one of the pillars in one of the churches and raised such strenuous objection that the movement was dropped and the ministers continue to pass each other every other Sunday.

WILL BEGIN WORK ON GRAND OPERA HOUSE

Joseph DeGoveia Will Start Remodelling of Theater Today—Many Changes Contemplated.

Yesterday John Anderson of Springfield signed a contract with Joseph DeGoveia for the remodelling of the Grand opera house building. Mr. Goveia expected to begin work on the theater today.

Many changes are contemplated in the building, though as yet all of the details have not been worked out. Among other things will be the changing of the entrance to the theater.

The new entrance will be from North Mauvaisterre street, but will be north of the present entrance. The present west exit will be utilized and one of the small store rooms also will be made into a part of the entrance. This will give an entrance and exit to be used for picture shows while both will be used for an exit at regular attractions.

The ticket office also will be north of the present location but the gallery entrance will remain as it now is. The theater will be repaired and redecorated throughout. In addition to the present equipment of scenery, new scenery will be painted, but the old fireproof curtain will again be used so it may be repainted.

It is expected to push the work of remodeling the theater before anything is done with the remainder of the building. Mr. Goveia stated yesterday that he expected to have it ready so that it could be opened for attractions and pictures by February 15.

When this work is completed, work will begin on remodeling the hotel part of the building. The present lobby and part of the room occupied by L. C. and R. E. Henry will be converted into a hotel lobby. This change will give the hotel one of the best lobbies in the city. One other change contemplated is the placing of a cafe in one of the east rooms on East Court street with the kitchen in the rear of the Henry room which was originally built for restaurant purposes.

The news that the opera is to be opened soon will be received with general satisfaction by the public. There are many good theatrical attractions on the road at the present time and all of them would be glad to book Jacksonville if a theater was available.

While no lease has yet been made for the building, Mr. Anderson has a number of flattering offers, both for the theater separately and for the theater and hotel combined. There is little doubt that a lease will be made before the work is completed and if none is made Mr. Anderson probably will operate the theater himself temporarily.

WHITE HALL MAN DIES SUDDENLY

D. Jacob Meister Passes Away—Gregory Ranch Owner Has Not Been Found.

White Hall, Dec. 17.—The death of D. Jacob Meister, a farmer, residing on the Amos farm, just north of White Hall, occurred at 9:20 p. m. Tuesday. He had been in poor health for several years, but was not taken seriously ill until the day before his death, when he was attacked with hemorrhages. He was a native of Carrollton, and he was 45 years of age last month. His wife was formerly Miss Rose Linker, daughter of C. Linker of White Hall, and they were married in 1906. In 1910 Mr. Meister purchased the Amos farm, where they have since resided. There are no children. The father, Daniel Meister, died about two years ago, and the mother still resides at the old home in Carrollton.

Funeral services will be conducted by Rev. A. F. Ewert at the home at 1:30 p. m. Friday, and the burial will be in the White Hall cemetery. The deceased was a member of no organization.

Gone to Indiana. J. M. Kilgore and family left Tuesday for Bluffton, Indiana, where they will reside. Mr. Kilgore will engage business there.

A party of local musicians attended chapter meeting in Roodhouse Tuesday night.

The Round Table will be entertained by Mrs. H. W. Chapman Friday afternoon.

There is no foundation for the rumor that E. E. Meredith, owner of the Gregory ranch, missing since September 27th, had been located in Texas.

THE OBSERVATORY

The action of the Cleveland farmer who purchased a reserved seat ticket for $15 to witness the end of the world yesterday certainly adds emphasis to the late P. T. Barnum's famous assertion.

Associated Press dispatches carry the news that a representative of "Tex" Rickard is conferring with M. Decolin, the French fight promoter in an effort to make some arrangement regarding the Dempsey-Carpentier scrap in Paris which the American pugilistic backers would have a share. However, it would be well for Rickard to watch his step and remember that Decolin is out for Decolin, which presumably is what Rickard is out for.

W. Barr Brown has been appointed chairman of District No. 12 composed of eleven central Illinois counties, in the state campaign against the H. C. L. We'll say he has plenty of territory and a big job. He should have the active co-operation of every householder in the district in an effort to make the fight a successful one.

Have you bought your Red Cross seals yet? No letter should go into the mails in this enlightened day and age, at this season of the year, without one of these little "stickers" prominently displayed.

Yes, the American Legion is "demanding" some action of congress, some conscription and for the former service men. It is lack of such consideration on the part of our ponderous and slow moving legislative bodies that breeds discontent and unrest in them. Consideration of disability claims, of back pay long over due, of insurance problems, of many other items affecting the ex-service man certainly should be demanded. And it is only thru such a national organization as the American Legion that the claims of the individual can be heard.

Judging of the attitude of Chief Garrity of Chicago relative to Attorney General Brundage's ruling on liquor transportation there may be damp spots in the Windy City New Year's eve as of old. The new year, however, will undoubtedly receive the country over, the weakest reception ever tendered on such an occasion in the history of the United States. The most of the headaches the morning of January first will be from private stock and private parties.

PARDONS NEGRO WHO AVERTED CONVICT RIOT

Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 17.—One of the last official acts of Gov. Black before expiration of his term of office December 9, was to pardon Eli Curry, a negro who averted a riot in a convict camp in Pike County, Ky., in August, 1918. Curry had served fifteen years of a life term in the state reformatory.

One version of the incident has it that negro convicts in the road crew arose en masse apparently intending to kill their white guards and try for escape. Curry, armed only with a pick, confronted the threatening negroes and, declared he would kill any who started a demonstration. The convicts gave up the project and returned to work.

This act prompted Governor Black to pardon Curry, who had been a prison "trusty."

BEGINS LAST LEG OF TRIP AROUND WORLD

Galveston, Tex., Dec. 17.—The tramp Steamship Kinkasan Maru, which left Galveston recently bound for a Japanese port, began the last leg of a trip around the world begun in the Orient in April this year.

First the steamship went to India. From there she took a cargo to Madagascar, where she loaded another cargo for an Australian port. Denmark was the next country to which a cargo was carried. From there she steamed to Norfolk, then to Mobile to load pig iron, steel and rails, which in addition to several thousand bales of cotton loaded at Galveston, comprises the cargo she is carrying back to the Orient.

Tuesday, Dec. 23, at farm 1½ miles south of Woodson, 2½ miles northeast of Murrayville; horses, mules, cattle, hogs, implements.

St. Louis, Mo., Dec. 17.—Miss Lucinda D. Templin, dean of a local women's college, has been appointed national adviser of the recently organized National Federation of College Women, representing 95,000 women.

Women Need Swamp Root
Thousands of women have kidney and bladder trouble and never suspect it.

Women's complaints often prove to be nothing else but kidney trouble, or the result of kidney or bladder disease.

If the kidneys are not in a healthy condition, they may cause the other organs to become diseased.

Pain in the back, headache, loss of ambition, nervousness, an often times symptoms of kidney trouble.

Don't delay starting treatment. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, a physician's prescription, obtained at any drug store, may be just the remedy needed to overcome such conditions.

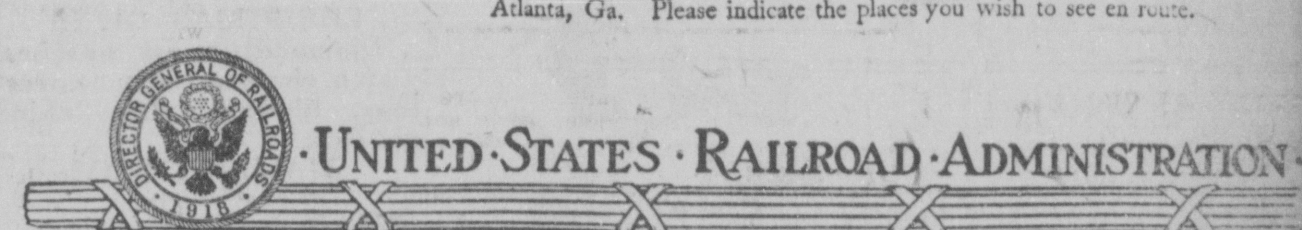

Get a medium or large size bottle immediately from any drug store.

However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention the Jacksonville Journal.—Adv.

To the American People

IT is the declared purpose of the United States Government to restore the railroads at an early date to the control of their owners.

The Association of Railway Executives represents those upon whom at that time responsibility will again rest for the prompt and successful movement of the country's commerce.

Those constituting this Association are keenly conscious of their accountability to the public.

They have accordingly determined to present as fully as they can, the fundamental facts and considerations which they themselves must face in their efforts to provide satisfactory railroad service.

It is hoped to engage the interest of the whole American people, whose welfare is so vitally dependent upon adequate transportation.

The country can grow only as the railroads grow. The railroad problem must be solved—and solved rightly and soon—if our country is to prosper.

It is to promote that prosperity—permanently and in the interest of the whole people—that railroad executives will present to the public the situation as they see it.

HAD TERRIBLE COUGH AND NIGHT SWEATS

Cough about gone, eats and sleeps well, and gained 12 pounds.

"In December, 1913, I had a fearful cough, and my physician ordered me to change climate immediately. I went to San Antonio, Texas, and entered a sanatorium. Left there and came to Oklahoma City in October, 1915. Had no appetite, could not sleep, had night sweats and was losing from one to three pounds a week. Also had catarrh of the bowels, which the doctors had been unable to relieve.

"Relatives urged me to try Milk's Emulsion. I did so and began to improve, slowly at first, but steadily. My weight has increased 12 pounds, have no temperature, and my cough is about gone. I can eat heartily, sleep well, and am working at my trade again."—Y. W. Nell, 610 No. Jewey St., Oklahoma City, Okla.

THIS CUP FREE

This Jiffy Measuring Cup is free to users of Jiffy-Jell. Just send us the end labels from two Jiffy-Jell packages—the labels naming the flavor—and we will mail the cup.

This aluminum cup holds exactly one-half pint. Fill twice with boiling water to dissolve one package Jiffy-Jell. It also holds exactly one cup, as called for in many recipes. Ordinary cups so vary in size that many recipes are spoiled. So this exact cup, with markings showing fractions of a cup, is essential in every home.

Crushed Fruit Desserts

Delightful Dainties at Trifling Cost

We make these offers to show more women what Jiffy-Jell means to them.

Jiffy-Jell differs vastly from other quick gelatine desserts. Each package contains a bottle of condensed fruit juice.

We crush the fruit, condense the juice, and bring you real fruit in abundance in these Jiffy-Jell desserts.

That's the important point. Flavor is mere taste, and often artificial. The fruit itself is rich in earthy salts. Everybody needs it every day.

For a Few Cents

Fresh fruit and canned fruit are expensive. Here are rich fruit dainties which are not.

And they are rich in fruit. Half a pineapple, for instance, is used to flavor one Jiffy-Jell dessert. Then almost a whole lemon is used to acidulate the mixture.

Yet a package of Jiffy-Jell serves six people in mold form.

Easy to Make This Pine Cough Remedy

Thousands of families swear by its prompt results. Inexpensive, and saves about $2.

Pine is used in nearly all prescriptions and remedies for coughs. The reason is that pine contains several elements that have a remarkable effect in soothing and healing the membranes of the throat and chest. Pine cough syrups are combination of pine and syrup. The "syrup" part is usually plain sugar syrup. To make the best pine cough remedy that money can buy, put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex in a pint bottle, and fill with home-made sugar syrup. If you can use clarified molasses, honey or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, you make a full pint more than you can buy ready-made for three times the money. It is pure, good and tastes very pleasant. You can feel this take hold of cough or cold in a way that meat business. The cough may be dry, hoarse and tight, or may be persistently loose from the formation of phlegm. The cause is the same—inflamed membranes—and this Pinex and Syrup combination will stop it—usually in 24 hours or less. THE MOVEMENT OF BRITISH EXCHANGE

NEW YORK, Dec. 17.—The most noteworthy developments which contributed to the irregular strength of today's stock market was the movement of British exchange. Bills on London continued to rally to the point where they cancelled the greater part of the recent severe decline, thereby strengthening the impression that steps are really being taken to negotiate large international credits.

The reviews of steel and iron industrial conditions were favorable. These were supplemented by advances in quotations for fuel oil and virtual consummation of large contracts for railway equipment.

In its surface aspects the stock market covered the ground of the previous session. Bull pools, added to the discomfort of the shorts in oils, motors, steels and equipments, in which gross gains of two to slightly over ten points were made.

Moderate improvement in the year end investment situation was reported by banks and bond dealers. The open market on the exchange failed to reflect this condition aside from a slight rally in liberty bonds and several of the international issues. Total sales (par value) aggregated $28,750,000.

REMOVING

Beauty Answers
By MADAME MARIE

LONGING—You will never again ask yourself why you have such a poor complexion if you will be sure to use the formula I give you here. You'll wonder why other women have such poor complexions.

the drug store and get one ounce of zinc oxide. This will cost about 50 cents. Mix with two tablespoonsful of vasoline in one pint of water. Apply this cream rather thick and rub it thoroughly, every day. Every blemish will disappear quickly, and your skin for a queenly complexion will be true. It never fails to give a healthy, gleaming, extraordinary tint to the skin.

MRS. "HAIRY"—It is just as easy to remove superfluous hairs now as to use your favorite face cream, lotion, and just as agreeable—if you use the proper means. The usual powders and lotions often irritate and inflame the skin, and this has done more than anything else to make it a misery for women to use a superfluous hair remover. Now all danger, irritation and skin reddening is eliminated by the use of a few drops of life solution. You can remove this instantly with the fingers on the hairs to be removed. There is nothing to mix or get ready. The hair can then be literally wiped off with the fingers. The skin is left smooth and soft as a baby's. This liquid can be applied with a brush, or even with the fingers on delicate parts. It is ideal. Use it in the arms, shoulders, bust, ankles, and legs. Never shave or wax, as this makes them more stiff and grows faster.

SORE ARMS—I want you to try this for the control of that excessive and unnatural perspiration in the armpits. It will save your garments, too, and prevent many embarrassments. Simply sprinkle hydrolized talc in the armpits, freely. This is really a wonderful article for the purpose and any drug store can supply you. A 50-cent tin of this will last you several months.

WAS "MOTHER" TO
THIRTY-TWO CHILDREN
Atchison, Kans., Dec. 17.—In addition to her two daughters, Mrs. Jane Durham, who recently died here at the age of 74 years, was "mother" to thirty-two children, orphans, whom she had reared as her own. Mrs. Durham was a native of Platte county, Mo., where she spent most of her life. Because, as she often declared, she could not bear "to see motherless and fatherless children shift about in the world," Mrs. Durham adopted most of the little orphans of her community during her long and useful life and reared them to maturity. At one time she had ten orphan children in her home.

Old Santa Says Now Bring in The Children Toyland Complete

The Christmas Spirit pervades our big store. The children are reveling in the delights of our Toyland while the grownups are enthusiastic over the more practical things we are showing in gratifying completeness.

The Christmas Spirit is a mysterious thing; the most powerful, most kindly influence in the world. Unseen, unheralded, it slips into the palaces of kings, softly it glides into the peasant's hut. It lingers in a billion hearts; it inhabits a thousand lands.

And, ah, how the children love it! Were it not, what heart-burnings would there be; what a pitiful void in the dream world of prattling childland! It is the incarnation of their pretty imaginings; it is the materialization of their dream castles.

Will There be Music in the Home Christmas

is The One Phonograph that actually Re-creates--that gives you the world's best music in a manner that has challenged thousands to say which was the original and which was the creation.

Your Christmas Gift to those you love should be one that adds to their joy of living. Life itself is the greatest gift there is. To get the most out of it is a duty as well as a pleasure, for we have but one life to live.

Music, which gets into our inmost being and moulds our character, chases out discord with melody and despondency with cheer.

It makes no difference whose Christmas gift you are considering—husband or wife—parents, whose hair has silvered, or children with golden locks. Bring more music into their lives and your present to them will be happier days.
